

Day Trip to Oxford

© DAVID ILIFF/ CC-BY-SA 3.0

What is it?

Home to Oxford University (comprised of 38 separate colleges).

Highlights:

- The Colleges, most of which are open to visitors.
- The Covered Market
- The Bodleian Library
- Museum of History of Science
- The Ashmolean Museum of Art and Architecture

How do I get there?

Train: Approximately 1 hour from London Paddington to Oxford. Ticket costs about £24.

Coach: Approximately 2 hours from several London locations. Try Oxford Tube as an alternative to Megabus or National Express.

Car: There is very little parking available in Oxford City Centre. Oxford operates a Park and Ride scheme, enabling you to park your car outside the city and catch a bus into the centre.